Linen Shower for Miss Justus.

Mrs. A. H. Morey entertained Saturday afternoon with a linen shower at her home on Main street in honor of Miss Irma Justus. Miss Justus is one of the seasons "brides to be." Her marriage to Mr. Wilson Allen having been announced several weeks ago.

Mrs. Morey's guests enjoyed several games of rook. Then Miss Edwin Hunt gave some beautiful vocal selections. She was accompanied by Mrs. Woodard at the piano. After this the guests were invited into the dining room where they had the fun of searching for corresponding numbers to those given them. When these numbers were found they were found to carry with them a little gift in a tiny bag. The last to find her number was the honoree, and when it was found it was big and interesting, being two bags of beautiful gifts in linen and lingerie of beautiful and varied workmanship.

When refreshments were called, the guests marched a merry step to the tune of the wedding march around the table blowing tiny horns and whistles to show their pleasure at the happiness of the "bride to be." A very delightful supper was served of salad punch and cake.

Among those present were: Misses Irma Justus, Cora Lott, Bessie Hodges, Gladys Hodges, Ruth Smith, Caro Lee Green, Grace Sample, Annie Sample, Emma Sample, Ethel Blake, Annie Ewbank, Edwin Hunt, Artie Barber, Mesdames Earl Stillwell, John Grimes, Gordon Garlington, W. B. Howe, Woodward, Frank Ewbank, Michael Schenck, W. H. Justus, Hunt, Wiltshire Griffith.

In Honor of Mrs. McCullough.

Last Thursday evening Miss Gladys Calvert entertained a number of her friends complimentary to her sister, Mrs. Milton McCullough of Hickory. A number of interesting contests were engaged in by the merry party. Punch was served by little Misses Mildred Calvert and Dessie Dixon. A salad course was served at the close of the evening.

Those present were Mrs. Lillian Dickens, Mrs. Milton McCullough, Misses Pearl Beason, Minnie Crane, Irene Wetmur, Lula Bane Dixon, Stella Dixon, Lottie Dixon, Hester Patton, Vivian Thompson, Birdie West, and Messrs. Archie Corriher, Hal Whitfield, Marvin Reese, R. C. Doles, N. Hearn, Nat Walker, Lee and Walter Allen, C. E. Starling, Reid Dixon, Glover Jones and T. H. Cowan.

Holmes-Whately.

A marriage of interest to Western North Carolinians was solemnized in the Episcopal church at Crozet, Va., on Wednesday afternoon, October 18, when Miss Lucy M. Whately became the bride of Mr. A. Lancelot Holmes, of Flat Rock, North Carolina, the Rev. M. Mayer and Archdeacon Neave performing the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. Walter Lloyd Whately, of Crozet, near Charlottesville, who for a long time was secretary of the Virginia Horticultural society, while the groom is the youngest son of the late George Holmes, of Bowman's Bluff, Henderson county, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Holmes will be at home after November the first in Asheville, where Mr. Holmes has recently entered the real estate field.—Asheville Citizen.

NEGRO BISHOP TELLS RACE TO AVOID NORTH.

Meeting of A. M. E. Zion Conference Here Last Week Featured by Striking Address.

The meeting of the Blue Ridge Conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church, held here last week was featured by some strong sermons and was well attended by prominent negro church workers from many parts of the state and some portions of Tennessee.

Bishop George W. Clinton of Charlotte, presided over the sessions of the conference and in one of his sermons expressed the opinion that the ministers should counsel the masses of the negro people to exercise caution in the matter of going to the North in search of employment.

Moreover he said he thought the ministers and other leaders of the race ought to put forth their best efforts to have racial conditions changed by getting the white people to see the wisdom of giving the negro a fair chance, the fullest protection of the law, and far better educational advantages.

"If negro labor is needed in the South, if negro labor is essential to the South," he said, "then the South ought to see that negro labor is satisfied by giving the race better homes in sanitary communities, providing adequate school facilities, minimizing the brutality to which the race is subjected and guaranteeing them justice in the courts."

The conference organized on Wednesday by electing the following officers: Secretary and compiler, Rev. E. O. Cowan, West Asheville; assistant secretary, Rev. M. D. Smith, Asheville; recorder, R. I. Apostle, Sylva; statistician, L. E. Carr, Morristown, Tenn.; reporters, Star of Zion, Charlotte, J. B. Miller; missionary seer, Sophia Willis. The introductory sermon was preached by Rev. J. B. Miller, who took for his subject, "The Unfailing Effect of God's Word."

After the reading of the appointments the conference adjourned Sunday afternoon to meet next year at Waynesville.

Sunday night Bishop Clinton preached a very strong sermon at the First Methodist church and delighted his congregation. He is well educated and preaches with force.

SILK PETTICOAT SNARE DRAWS WOMEN'S DIMES.

Federal Agents Search for Promoters of Endless Chain Scheme—Fraudulent Use of Mail Alleged.

Hendersonville ladies have been caught in a "endless chain" game and it is said that quite a number of dimes have departed for parts unknown.

The following dispatch sent out of Minneapolis, Minn., will be read with interest by many:

"Thousands of letters, each containing 10 cents, are pouring into the local postoffice daily from women in various parts of the country who have joined in an 'endless chain' scheme promoted by the so-called 'National Brokerage Exchange.'"

"Federal agents are searching for officers of the exchange who are wanted for using the mails to defraud. A room in a local business block to which all the letters are addressed, was vacated three weeks ago, the authorities say."

"To every woman who would send 10 cents in silver and write five friends urging them to join in the chain, the 'exchange' promised a 'new 1917 model silk petticoat.'"

"Postmaster Purdy said 25,000 letters enclosing 25,000 dimes had been received in one day."
